

FEELIN' LOVE

She falls down
She calls out
She gets back up again
When she speaks

My name...

She knows that
I'm homebound
She's soulfire
When she always, always whispers my name

My name...

Oh, loving arms
Get me through the night
Well I know we will be alright
When she speaks my name

My name...

We would pass mountains and oceans
With feet on the ground
We will finally find
What we should've found

Ill only break you down,
Ill only get you back up again
Oh, back up again
When you speak

My name...

Well I know
You will be alright
And I hope
I will make it through the night

I'm feelin' love in time
I'm feelin' love
Oh Love...
